

Enter data into the 3 fields indicated.

The image shows a 'Product Activation' dialog box for Wolfram Mathematica 7. The window title is 'Product Activation'. The header features the Wolfram Mathematica 7 logo. The main text asks the user to select an installation type and enter required information. The 'Single-Machine License' option is selected. Three text input fields are present: 'Name' (Paul Abbott), 'Organization' (The University of Western Australia), and 'License number' (L2439-1224). A note states that a machine-specific password will be required. The 'Network license' option is unselected, with a field for the server name. At the bottom, there is a help link, 'Quit', and 'OK' buttons.
